Civilian Defense

A peculiarity of every village, city or trading center on a sun-swept highway is that affairs that touch our very existence must be taken care of by a few citizens devoting time and labor for the benefit of the many who take these things for granted.

The first of the matters I refer to is our Civilian Defense setup. Believe it or not, Lakeside is in very good shape due to the efforts of Otis Barker and Bob Watkins. Otis put in untold time and effort in this matter and then had to turn the matter over to Bob who has done an outstanding job. We go about our fat complacent way in a time when the sword of Damocles hangs over our head in the shape of the communistic menace. Our philosophy is to wait until we are struck with a near mortal blow before getting into action.

In case of the Civilian Defense, citizens who are aware of our danger have taken the matter in hand and thanks to them and our schools we are better prepared than many communities. Much credit must be given our schools who have prepared our children for atomic attack, and sad to say our youngsters know more than their parents in this matter.

The STAR feels grateful to Bob Watkins for his untiring efforts in this so vital a matter to every resident in the Community, and also urges all who read this to contact Bob and get the details, and volunteer to do what is needed. Because without warning it can happen here.

Do Your Part or Shut Up

A letter from Frank Zeglis appearing in this issue impels us to pass a few remarks of our own. We agree with Frank, but whether we agreed with him or not we'd give him or any subscriber space to voice their opinions.

In the matter of his opinions on unfounded gossip we heartily agree, also his statement that either attend meetings or shut up.

Last Monday we attended a meeting of the Citizen's Advisory Council where we found a fair number of citizens who took Community affairs seriously. We listened to a young man put up an earnest plea for a raise in teachers salaries by putting back the 39c raise on our tax bill. We also heard others present give their views on our school costs. We have no comment to make on these proposals, but we do wish to commend those present for taking enough interest in our community affairs to attend and voice their opinions. On this teacher's raise in pay matter the Board of Trustees of the Lakeside School will hold a meeting where the coming budget will be the topic.

Now in this case it is up to every taxpayer to be present and voice his opinions on our educational costs. If you don't attend this meeting you have no right to bleat if you don't approve of what the Trustees work out.

It is high time that citizens do something else besides pontificating about where this or that money is going by exerting themselves to see where it is going before it's gone. Your duties do not end when you vote someone into office any more than it ends when you hire someone to work for you.

Your trustees are there to work for you, and though they donate this time, labor and headaches at no cost to you, they nevertheless need your help and the least one can do is attend these meetings, and give them some inkling of what is on your mind.

Two Trustees go out of office this spring. Do you want them to continue in office or do you want a change. Now is the time to give the matter some thought.

In our last election the cry was we want a change. They got it, but the $64 question is did they really get anything but a change in names. Our school system has grown to be a man sized affair in Lakeside, our teachers are looking out for the teachers, but just who's looking out for the taxpayer? If the taxpayer is too inert to look out for himself he deserves just what he's been getting for the past twenty five years, namely a boot in the tail-bone.

We have in Lakeside a number of citizens who are on the alert but the mass of Lakeside taxpayers are very apathetic until the bill of good has been sold. Then how they yelp. We suggest discarding the lead in their overalls and a sincere effort be made to examine the bill of goods before buying.

Letter To Editor

As a businessman, property owner and heavy taxpayer I would like to clear up some confused thinking on the part of some of our local citizens.

I am a member of the Lakeside Chamber of Commerce and as such I want to see that others join for the benefit of us all. When I mention the Chamber I get such assinine answers as "I wouldn't join that bunch because their purpose is to shove something down our throats. Such statements show the most abysmal ignorance of the purpose of the Chamber. Had the people guilty of such blatherings ever extered themselves to attend a monthly Chamber they would realize how ridiculous such gossip is.

The Chamber, in lieu of our not having any type of a governing body except a supervisor who does not reside in Lakeside, act as a guiding body whose sole purpose is to further the interests of Lakeside.

The Chamber wants every Lakesider to be a member, and as such voice his opinions as to what his ideas are on Community needs and affairs. It has used the STAR to invite and urge one and all to attend Chamber meetings.

Such being the case just where do these idiots get the idea that the Chamber's purpose is to put something over on the Community.

I am using the STAR to voice my opinions and thus save me the need of answering this garbage to each individual who springs it on me. I have stated in a previous letter to the STAR that we as a fast growing Community have ever increasing problems forced upon us with no governing body to solve them. It is up to every taxpayer and Lakesider to do his share by attending such citizen gatherings as the Chamber and the Citizen's Advisory Council. If you have not enough interest in your community to do this, at least keep your mouth shut until you know what you are talking about.

Public Hearing At Comm. Church

A public hearing will be held at the Lakeside Community Church April 9 at 8 p. m. Lakeside Farms request Board of Supervisors for building restrictions led by Charles Price and several other property owners, names not given. Desire all who are interested to be present.

Civilian Defense Gets Rolling

Otis Barker, has been appointed Zone Warden of the Lakeside Civilian Defense organization, with Bob Watkins and Willard Johnson as his assistants. Mr. Watkins will serve as zone warden during Mr. Barker's absence while he is on vacation.

Lakeside has been divided into five districts. District No. 1 is the downtown Lakeside area with Cecil Carender as the district warden, and Dane Carender and C. J. Sutton as his assistants. District No. 2 is Winter Gardens and Riverview Farms, with S. G. Scott, district warden. At this writing, Mr. Scott has no assistant wardens, and he would appreciate any volunteers. District No. 3 is Eucalyptus Hills, with Joe McReynolds serving as district warden, and Robert J. Price as his only assistant; which brings us back to our original plea for more volunteers. District No. 4 is the El Monte Section, with Russ Wilkinson as district warden, and Frank Makemson and Wallace Cate as his assistants. District No. 5 is the Lakeside Heights, Lakeview Subdivision, Woodland Vista and Los Coches road area including as far as Highway 80. George Nelson is the district warden for this large area, with Tom Sharp and Henry Cramer assistant district wardens.

There should be four or more block wardens for each district to assist the district wardens. Up to now, no block wardens have been appointed, due to the lack of volunteers. If you are willing to help with the Lakeside Civilian Defense effort, please get in touch with your district warden. If you are in doubt as to which district you live in, the district map has been posted in the window of Watkins' Bake-Sweet Shop.

The district services are working short-handed too. They need volunteers for fire reserves, engineering, staff personnel, medical and health, evacuation and welfare, communications, transportation and rescue. Any one interested in volunteering for fire reserves should see Chief Eddie Harrison. The chief of engineering service has not been appointed yet, and Assistant Zone Warden Bob Watkins is hoping for volunteers for that post. Rev. T. E. Roberts has been appointed Chief Clergyman for this district, with the clergymen of other faiths assisting him. The other chiefs of services are: Eddie De Puis, public affairs and information; Mrs. Eva Murray, staff personnel; B. J. Conrad, communications; Bill Farmer, welfare and evacuation; Mrs. John Rocchio, medical and health; Tom Barkdull, sheriff reserve. No chief has been appointed for transportation or rescue, so volunteers are needed there also.

Did you know that your children attending the Lakeside schools have been instructed what to do in case an atomic bomb attack was imminent, and that therefore, the average grammar school child is more aware of how to protect himself from injury from a bomb blast than is the man on the street?

A. J. Trumbull, director of Civilian Defense in the county area, inspected the Lakeside School system last Friday, and commended Superintendent E. H. Walker; Miss Leola Leahy, principal of Lindo Park school; and Archie Pruyne, principal of Lakeside school on the Civilian Defense training being given in the schools.

In the course of his inspection, Mr. Trumbull said that the Lakeside schools had been built so that they afforded excellent bomb shelters. He said that the windows of the schools for the most part have southern and northern exposures; and also have heavy drapes that can cover the windows to protect the children from shattered glass and the blinding light of the bomb. The logical bombing target being San Diego's defense plants and naval installations, the concussion supposedly would come from a westerly direction; therefore, the Lakeside schools have a definite gographical advantage, Mr. Trumbull said.

Mr. Trumbull stated that first-aid training was of primary importance to every one, and that there would be free classes in first-aid scheduled for this area in the near future. Any one interested in enrolling for training should see Bob Watkins.

Since the county area has no

Lakeside C. of C. to Manage Cactus Park

Lakeside Chamber of Commerce may soon take over management of the county's Cactus Park at Lakeside as a concessionaire.

Both the chamber and the Lakeside Frontier Riders are seeking long-term leases of the park for development of a public riding school, arena for amateur rodeos, a fold course and other recreational facilities.

Bertram McLees, deuty county counsel, wrote the Board of Supervisors that he believed it would be possible to negotiate with the Chamber of Commerce, as a concessionaire rather than a leasing tenant.

The park, deeded to the county in 1929 by owners who had planted it to spineless cactus, hoping to harvest the fruit for commercial purposes, has not been developed. One portion is used as a public dump.

Aztec Riders Seventh Annual Mounted Easter Sunrise Service

For the seventh consecutive year mounted worshippers, young and old, will ride in from all directions and many communities to assemble at sunrise in the Aztec Riders Ring, La Mesa, to observe another glorious Easter Morn.

This unique and impressive service was originated in 1947 when Dr. J. Marion Smith, member of the Aztec Riding Club and Pastor of the North Park Baptist Church, San Diego, assisted by Cecil Morgan, widely-known Horse Show Announcer, newspaper and radio columnist, also a member of the club; and the associated minister, Rev. A. S. (Cowboy Bill) Akin, colorful horseman and expert pistol shot, joined with other committee members of the Aztec Riders to hold their First Mounted Easter Sunrise Service. The service, held at Broadway Farms, was entirely conducted from horseback and featured a thirty voice mounted choir.

The next year and each succeeding year the Service has been held in the Aztec Riders Ring at the foot of a large sloping hill in Alvarado Canyon, La Mesa. The area is so located that it can handle as many as five hundred mounted worshippers, plus several thousand who enjoy the service from their automobiles.

A scenic background of "The Tomb," painted by Mr. Orville Sauter of San Diego, combined with natural shrubbery and gift flowers, makes an appropriate and impressive setting from which the speakers and musicians tell the Easter Story. At the very moment of sunrise trumpeters sound a Salute to the Dawn and the Procession of Horsemen comes into view from a nearby hill where they have assembled. American flags, California flags, and colorful club banners plus the bright attire of Western horsemen combine for a stirring spectable as they are led by a Christian Crusade to the strains of "Onward Christian Soldiers." After all riders have assembled in the ring before the Altar the club banners are retired and the service begins.

OUTSTANDING SOLOISTS AND MUSICIANS

Outstanding soloists and musicians to be heard at the service are Alice Couchman who will sing "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," and the Helix High School Choir of 85 voices, under the direction of Mr. Robert Rue, who will sing two anthems. Tommy Lowersons Brass Quartet will again be heard. A special feature of the service will be the "Easter Music Package" by Phil Kerr, noted song writer, and Tim Spencer of "The Sons of the Pioneers." Both artists are from Los Angeles but are well-known and popular locally.

Reverend Earl R. Berg of the First Baptist Church of La Mesa will deliver the Sunrise Sermon. He will be assisted by Rev. A. S. (Bill) Akin, and by Reverend Norman Cummings, Director of San Diego Youth for Christ.

All members of riding clubs, individual riders, and the public are Cordially invited to attend the Easter Sunrise Service, April 5, 1953 at 5:31 a. m. Following the custom breakfast will be served in the club house before and after the service.

San Diego Set For All-Orchid Show

The nation's largest all-orchid show is scheduled for March 28-29 in the attractive poolside setting of the La Jolla Beach and Tennis Club, San Diego.

Sponsored by the San Diego County Orchid Society, the show will exhibit locally-grown species of the plant as well as rare and exotic blooms from Hawaii, Mexico, England, Australia and major orchid-growing centers throughout the United States.

Traditionally one of the most popular and outstanding floral displays in the southland, this year's event is the society's seventh annual orchid how. Orchid fashions for milady's spring chapeau and for that added touch of glamour for her Easter gown will be featured, along with table arrangements that will emphasize both formal and informal settings.

Nearly 100 different cymbidium, cypripdium, and catleyas orchid varieties are expected to be on display this year.

The show will open Saturday, March 28 at 11:30 a. m. and close at 9:00 p. m. On Sunday, March 29 the hours will be from 10:00 a. m. until 6:00 p. m.

POLIO AND GAMMA GLOBULIN

A couple of years ago, a sensation article in a national magazine pictured TB patients dancing in the hospital wards as a result of a new medical discovery. But as spokesmen for the medical profession warned at the time, the joy proved premature, and the discovery's benefits turned out to be far more limited than originally described.

That pattern of exaggerated description of and later disappointment in the properties of newly discovered cures and remedies has been repeated many times. This cruel raising of false hopes sometimes can be attributed to honest error, sometimes to the desire of a medical science writer to sell an article. Invariably, organized medicine must assume the painful duty of disillusioning the overenthusiastic.

Such a vast amount of publicity has appeared lately concerning the olio serum, gamma globulin, that it seems inevitable that the impression will be created, once again, that a "sure cure" has been discovered. In a newspaper release urging all Californians to donate blood during the current drive, so that the greatest possible amount of gamma globulin may be produced, the California Medical Association utters these words of caution:

"The serum has been tested for several years, with inconclusive results. It appears to have some immunizing effect for a period of four to six weeks, starting about one week after its injection."

In a joint statement, the Association's president, Dr. Lewis A. Alesen, and Dr. Wilton L. Halverson, State director of Public Health, warn that the demand for gamma globulin during the coming polio season will be far greater than the supply. And while research continues into the serum's effectiveness and efforts are accelerated to expand its production, it is well to remember that the end of the dread scourge of polio is not yet in sight.

By Langlois

This virus X, for want of a better name, has one thing to its credit and that is it's no respector of persons. This is the second time since Jan. 1st that it has flattened me out, but I have the consolation ,if that's the proper term, that it is flattening younger and better men than I. This last attack took me for the count, inasmuch as I passed out cold, hit my beak on a door edge which also loosened by three front teeth, changing my looks from that of a whistling marmot to that of a spring carp.

This being laid up has its compensation, such as finding out what a good personnel we have at the plant. These boys took over and are doing a better job of doing my work than I was doing in addition to their own work.

I got out Monday night to cover a Lakeside Advisory Council meeting where I heard an earnest plea for a raise in wages for the teachers backed up by figures on the teacher shortage. Now, I am for paying the most for the best and I feel that our teachers are entitled to all they are worth, but I just don't get this teacher shortage. Right now I am thinking out loud and this is the way my thoughts seem to be running. Our education system appears to get costlier and costlier. This is not due as I see it to teacher's pay, but to a number of other things. For one thing is it necessary to have coaches to teach football, basketball or any other kind of ball from grammar school on up. Could not these coaches kind of double in brass at the expense of athletics. Another matter is kindergarten. I still can't figure out what particular value kindergarten is outside of getting Sis and Junior out of mamma's hair for ten months out of the year.

Comparing our present educational system to that of fifty plus years ago when I graduated out of the third grade there is not much I can say after Dutch Walker asked me if I knew more when I was in the third grade than my sons knew when they were in that grade. The fact of the matter is they knew more than I did, but that don't mean they knew anything. I do know this much however, that if a person has an earnest desire for an education he'll get it, school or no school. We have today the educational system we must want, otherwise it would have been changed, and as far as I am concerned I am past the age where I intend to worry about it. My children seem to have done OK in spite of my years of worrying. However, in the matter of school building the Delano Chamber of Commerce came out for a streamlined set of plans so that any district desiring to build could get the plans from the state and thus eliminate architectural gravy trains. It got little or no support, from any chamber, including our own.

Summing the matter up it appears that we are getting just what we want because we vote bonds for this or that, then suddenly decide to yelp when we get the bill. Seems to me we should examine the cost of an article before we buy it. We also should make some effort to attend Advisory Council meetings, trustee's meetings, and Chamber of Commerce and get a first hand picture of what's going on instead of listening to rumors circulated by birds with an axe to grind, and don't try to economize by taking it out of the teacher's pay check.

Concluding I'd say if you think your school costs are too high do something about it instead of griping after you've bought a bill of goods. Something needs attention but you won't have it so long as our 8th graders graduate in formals and keep on going the limit of extravagance until their last days in college.

CAPITOL AND COUNTY News Letter

by RALPH R. CLOYED
ASSEMBLYMAN

The Rules Committee of the Asembly has given its approval to a bill which would limit lobbying activities of State agencies and has sent it to the floor of the Assembly. This bill would prevent State employees from advocating assage or defeat of legislation, except to appear before committees. The employees would still be permitted to submit reports to the legislature or prepare suggested legislation pertaining to their department. Violators would be subject to disciplinary action by the State Personnel Board.

Legislation has passed the Assembly with no dissenting votes and sent to the Senate a bill designed to eliminate punchboards from California. It makes the mere possession, the manufacture, or distribution of a punchboard illegal. According to enforcement officers, approximately 500,000 punchboards are shipped to California yearly, and more than $30,000,000 is spent by those who are willing to take a chance on them. The Legislature, two years ago, passed legislation which is now a law preventing the possession or shipment of what is commonly called, "one-armed bandits" or slot machines. Earlier this session, the Assembly passed a bill to outlaw draw poker, which is still pending in the Senate.

A joint resolution that passed both houses and been sent to the President of the United States and Congress, requesting that a provision of a treaty which denies or abridges any right enumerated in the constitution shall not be of any force or effect.

It would also specify that no treaty shall permit any foreign power or international organization to supervise or control any constitutional rights of United States Citizens.

The House of Representatives, in addition to the Senate, would also have to ratify a treaty to make it effective.

Two bills have been sent to the floor of the Assembly by the Ways and Means Committee, both of which provide funds for a study of a salt water barrier across San Francisco Bay. This study was advocated by the Governor in his annual message to the Legislature.

Assemblyman Levering, author of the right to work bill, has announced his intention of amending his bill to conform with the Virginia law. The United States Supreme Court has upheld the constitutionality of the Virginia right to work law.

Pending on the Assembly file is a Senate constitutional amendment No. 8. It would require securing initiative petitions from at least 30 of the State's 58 counties bearing the signatures of voters equal to 8 per cent of the votes cast for the Governor in the most recent election before being submitted to the voters on the ballot.

The adult education bill, on which there has been much misunderstanding and misinformation, is being worked over to overcome some of the objectionable features. The bill would eliminate State support of courses in physical education, dancing, civil defense, etc. The program would eliminate waste and curtail frills. The Department of Education concedes there has been abuses. Badminton and home-making classes would have to be financed on tuition fee basis with local funds.

A sub-committee of the Senate finance committee has eliminated an item of $88,915 from the budget which represents the entire budget of the State recreation committee. This departmnt received rough treatment in the Assembly ways and means committee, but finally secured enough votes to continue this department, only to be eliminated by the Senate.

Many visitors from San Diego County were seen around Sacramento this week. Some of them found time to visit the Legislature. C. Taylor, D. H. Carlisle, Don H. Riggs, William Tetterfield, Howard Spirz, Clyde C. Hall and Marshall Barrett, representatives of San Diego County labor unions.

Bob Rundell, Paul Engstrand, Bill Jennings, John Cranston, Frank Jacobsen, Hans Doe, attended the irrigation district convention. Supervisors Dave Bird and Mrs. Bird, along with Dan Rossi, Frank Gibson, Jim Robbins, and Arnold Klaus, of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. and Mrs. J. Wyant of Chula Vista and their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Deitcher from Glenwood, Iowa, were guests of the Legislature.

The usual close-working San Diego delegation apparently is going to be split over a bill that increases from $4,200 to $8,400 a year, a salary raise for the San Diego County Board of Supervisors. Senator Kraft and Assemblyman Cloyed favor the increase and Assemblymen Bulen and Luckel are against it.

POLITICAL PARADE

By CLEM WHITAKER, JR.

Powerful opposition to Governor Earl Warren's demands for new State taxes is developing rapidly in Sacramento.

The highly-effective California State Chamber of Commerce has taken its stand against new General Fund taxes. Assemblyman Harold K. Levering, Republican of Los Angeles, and majority leader in the lower House, has announced opposition to a tax increase.

Last week, Senator Ben Hulse, Republican of El Centro, and Chairman of the Senate Finance Committee told his colleagues that he believed the Governor's all-time high budget could be cut and balanced without an increase in taxes.

If the Legislature can cut the budget by $39 million as recommended by the Legislature Auditor, Hulse declared "there will be no necessity for a tax increase this year, and we will have a surplus of $19 million at June 30, 1954."

Hulse, a legislative veteran and budget expert, stated "the people of California, as throughout the Nation, have spoken out against deficit financing and increasing taxes on the federal level and it is time that the Legislature in this State looked to the abolition of this type of financing on he State level."

Governor Warren's budget calls for an expenditure in the coming fiscal year of slightly more than $1,300,000,000. It is the Governor's contention that the increase is necessary to finance the increase in State aid to the public schools voted by the people through Proposition 2, last November.

Like the State Chamber of Commerce and Senator Hulse, the California Teachers Association holds an increase in taxes is not necessary to finance the $67,000,000 school measure.

Robert McKay, CTA representative, states:

"Estimates upon which the California Teachers Association based its conclusion that Proposition 2 and other reasonable increases in the cost of State government could be financed from present tax rates have not only been justified by developments, but have proven conservative.

"The CTA stated its belief that official estimates of revenue were too low. Last fiscal year the budget estimate missed the mark by $92,000,000.

"When the Governor signed the budget bill for the current fiscal year he estimated that only a $5,000,000 surplus would exist at the end of the year.

"Now, however, a continuing high volume of business has caused the Governor to abandon the earlier estimates and conclude that a surplus of at least $66,000,000 will be available.

"Some informed sources are willing to bet the surplus actually will reach or exceed $80,000,000.

"As the fiscal year progresses, each month-end financial statement indicates continuing high revenues which exceed even the CTA estimates which were attacked during the campaign as unrealistic and phoney."

The first wells in Burma's oil fields were plank-lined shafts dug by hand to depths up to 400 feet.

Driving Not Weather Cause Accidents

It's bad driving, not bad weather that causes traffic accidents, the California Highway Patrol said today.

Patrol Commissioner B. R. Caldwell noted that every time rain, fog or snow hits an area and accidents jump sharply, there's a tendency to blame the climate.

"What really happens," he said, "is that drivers fail to adjust their driving habits to the hazards which always accompany a change for the worse in the weather."

Slick and slippery roads, spattered windshields, high winds and pedestrians who dart across streets with their heads in their umbrellas all represent dangers drivers must compensate for by reducing their normal dry-weather speed and being extra alert.

Caldwell pointed out that one of the most common types of bad-weather mishaps are rear-end collisions, sometimes involving several vehicles. He cautioned drivers to allow more of a safety gap between themselves and the vehicle ahead, even in slow-moving traffic.

As for pea-soup fog, Caldwell told motorists that if they had to be out in that kind of weather, they could minimize the chance for an accident by slowing down to the point where they can stop safely if something pops up in front of them.

SOCIETY - CLUBS

Soroptimist Club Meets

Lester J. Wadsworth, assistant director of Civil Defense and Disaster for San Diego, was the speaker at Tuesday's meeting of the El Cajon Soroptimist Club. He told of wide spread damage and disaster which can result from the use of the atom bomb and respectively illustrated his talk with the use of maps. The importance of civil defense was emphatically pointed out to a very attentive audience. Naming San Diego as the No. 1 target on the West Coast, Mr. Wadsworth explained what could happen in one and a half hours to 9½ square miles with no gas, no electric or water supply. He termed the current conflict as "economic war" and said this type of warfare is most effective as it destroys a nation's means of making war.

Next Tuesday, March 31, Mr. Wadsworth will again speak to the El Cajon Soroptimist Club and will tell what those in civil defense in this area plan to do both in preparation and in action should an atom bomb fall here.

Introduction of Mr. Wadsworth wae made by the program chairman, Genevieve Churchill.

"Reality" Christian Science Sunday Topic

How spiritual reality overcomes materiality through the healing of sickness, opverty, discord, and sin, will be pointed out in the Sunday Lesson-Sermon on "Reality" in all Christian Science churches.

The Golden Text from Isaiah (64:4) declares, "Since the beginning of the world men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither hath the eye seen, O God, beside thee, what he hath prepared for him that waiteth for him."

John's Gospel (14:5,6,12) records that when Thomas questioned Jesus, saying, "Lord, we know not whither thou goest; and how can we know the way? Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me . . . He that believeth on me, the works that I do shall he do also; and greater works than these shall he do; because I go unto my Father."

In "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" Mary Baker Eddy asks, "How can a Christian, having the stronger evidence of Truth which contradicts the evidence of error, think of the latter as real or true, either in the form of sickness or of sin? All must admit that Christ is 'the way, the truth, and that omnipotent Truth certainly does destroy error" (p. 353).

Wot Goes On . . .

By Millie

Limited space in the Star last week prevented this gab column from being printed, but I'm sure the most of you readers didn't miss it a bit.

Have you seen the super sign out in front of the Security Bank? Looks like big time stuff and really is an improvement to the building. I've noticed Bob Swearengin the vice president, spending a lot of time over here lately, and it seems nice to see him around Lakeside for a change.

Heard there were at least fifteen kids awaiting the opening of the Hobby Shop last Saturday, and we feel sure they will be regular customers at that place. Kids love to make model planes, cars and what have you, so it should prove to be a popular hangout for them and this is the type of place we don't mind having our young fry browse around. We hope Mrs. Dittus can take it, but she appears to me to be a very sweet patient type of person.

Did you know that Dick Murray has been a very sick man, and has spent most of his time lately in the hospital or home in bed. Here's hoping you'll soon be up and around Dick as you missed a whale of a lot around town and especially over there in that Electrical store of yours, but having a brick of a wife like Eva to keep things running smoothly, all I can say in you're lucky to have her. Then too Eva and Dick bought our former home on Julian Ave. and amidst all of this, they moved.

Heard some of the fellows around town went fishin' on Tuesday, but didn't have a bit of luck. However, it was great sport being on the boat together, and with Otis Barker who was one of them, leaving for the trip he has talked about so long, they had quite a farewell party. We want to wish Otis and his wife Genevieve a wonderful journey, and hope they come back feeling fit as a fiddle. We will miss you both a lot, and really envy you getting away from it all. Drop us a card now and then folks.

Dr. Shearer is now ready to open up his office here in Lakeside and having met him we can vouch for his being a very friendly and likeable person. Just to know there will be a physician in case of an emergency is a big relief, and I know you all feel the same way. Drop by and get acquainted with Doc Shearer, he's nice to know.

Have you any young sons who would be available for Cub Scouts? If so, you are asked to be present at the organization meeting to be held Friday evening in Lindo Park School. If your young son is an enthuiastic as ours is, you will welcome a Cub Scout group to send him to, and don't forget parents your help will be needed to make it a success.

Easter will be here before you realize it, and this is the time of year when we should all plan to attend some church and worship on this important day. Good music will also be heard at all churches.

See you next week.

El Cajon Anglers Get Bass Limits

With the Coronado Islands waters already teeming with yellowtail, deep sea anglers are primed, cocked, and ready to open fire in the Junior Chamber of Commerce's seventh annual San Diego Yellowtail Derby qualifying round April 4.

Although losses have run heavy in dealing with the big mossbacks of the early run, anglers are far from discouraged and are anxiously awaiting a chance to renew the jousting when the Derby chips are down.

Indicating how the battle has been going, 44 mossback yellows were taken last Thursday, most of them ranging in the 26 to 36 pound class, and it was estimated that easily that many more were broken off in the fight. Largest fish of the 44 was a 36½ pounder caught by Bob Curry, of Upland, and the best individual performance the taking of seven big yellows without a loss by Chuck Gillam, of San Diego.

El Cajon anglers who bagged limits of barries and bass included the following: Cecil Fuller, J. Richards, Chet Pearce, W. C. Heath, Robert Prince, Harold Myerig, Pat Myerig, P. D. Zao John Dickson, Harold Reed, and T. A. Paulsen.

The Dominion of Canada was established, July 1, 1867.

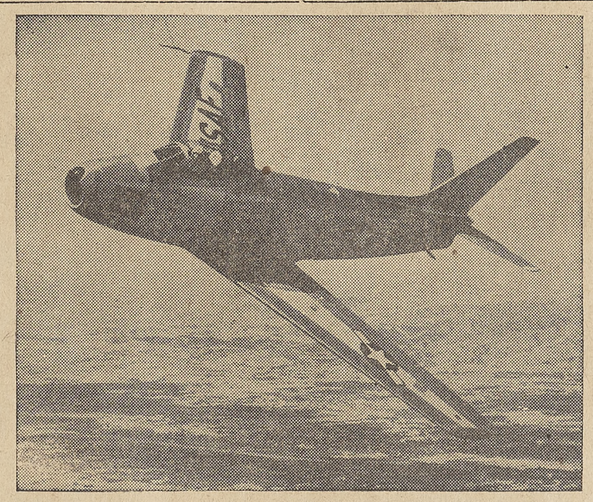
WELCOME — Jane Powell and Gordon MacRae welcome Maria Aguello and Kim Jones to the set of "Three Sailors and a Girl" at Warner Bros. studio. Both Jane and Gordon urge full support to the Easter Seal campaign which helps crippled children to walk again.



The powerful new North American F-86F Sabre Jet is now shooting down MIG's in Korea ,the Air Force announced today.

Faster and more deadly than earlier model Sabres, the F-86F is powered by a General Electric J-47-GE-27 jet engine which gives over 5800 pounds thrust.

"The added thrust of the engine and mechanical improvements on the F-86F combine to enhance the Sabre's maneuverability, speed and versatility," R. H. Rice, North American Engineering Vice President, explained.

Modification of the Sabre gunsight also has increased the number of aerial victories over the Russian-built MIG.

Improved F-86F Sabre Jets have been coming off production lines in Los Angeles and Columbus, Ohio since March, 1952. They are in the 650 mph class, have a combat radius in excess of 500 miles and a maximum ceiling of over 45,000 feet. They are armed with six .50 calibre machine guns.

Latest Air Force figures shown 586 Russian-built MIG's have been shot down by F-86 Sabre Jets for a 10 to one kill ratio. The Air Force has announced 54 Sabres have been lost in combat.

Social Workers Sought In Multi-Million Dollar Air Program

March 27 is the deadline for filing applications for social worker jobs to help administer the state's $325,000,000 public assistance program. The Merit System Examining Agency announced applicants are needed for 47 of the state's 58 County Welfare Departments. The examinations will be held April 11th in 30 cities throughout the state.

Three years or more of college or three years of responsible business or public experience is qualifying. Applications may be obtained from local Department of Employment offices, County Welfare Departments or from the Merit System Examining Agency, P. O. Box 2709, Sacramento.

Parrotfish in the Red Sea actually bite off and chew up chunks of coral rock while feasting on the tiny sea animals living inside, says the National Geographic Society.

It was announced today (March 26) by Mrs. Madeline Clausen, President of the Gold Star Wives Service Foundation, that during its first eighteen months of operation the Service Foundation expended a total of $134,599.75 for service and welfare and direct aid for widows, children and dependent parents of men who gave their lives in World War II and the Korean conflict.

Of the total expenditure, $89,-982.07 was spent on the service and welfare work of the Foundation and the remaining $44,-617.68 represents direct grants made on behalf of gold star families to summer camps, doctors, hospitals and educational institutions.

"Left in the wake of war," Mrs. Clausen pointed out, "is the tragedy of the widows and children of those who did not return. Dream castles are shattered by the fateful words — 'killed in action' or 'died of wounds.'"

"The distraught 'widows of war," she continued, "suddenly find themselves confronted with a need for information concerning benefits; for assistance with their claims or for legal advice. The widow who has had no training in the money-making world, finds herself suddenly faced with the pressing problem of supporting a family and continuing the children's education."

It was in December of 1945 that a group of widows of World War II banded together in New York City and formed the Gold Star Wives of America, Inc. Through the years the organization has grown, and now has members in all 48 states, Puerto Rico and Hawaii, and chapters in most of the principal cities.

In May of 1951 the Gold Star Wives Service Foundation was incorporated in the State of Illinois "to insure the education, health and general welfare of children of American men who gave their lives in the service of our country, and the health and general welfare of other dependents of such servicemen."

During the summers of 1951 and 1952 hundreds of children of deceased servicemen spent vacations at summer camps in various sections of the country as guests of the Gold Star Wives Service Foundation. All sons and daughters of deceased servicemen between seven and sixteen years of age are eligible to take part in the camping program.

Dependent mothers and fathers of American war dead are eligible also for certain types of aid. When consultation with a physician shows that some form of medical aid is required and the gold star parent has no means through which to obtain medical care, the Gold Star Wives Service Foundation will make arrangements for assistance directly with the physician or hospital of the applicant.

Children of deceased service personnel desiring assistance with education should write the office of the Service Foundation outlining their requests. Since limited funds at the present time make it impractical to launch a program for a college education for all gold star children, special attention is given to particularly gifted children and to those in need of special training for specific psychological or physical reasons.

Eligibility does not include dependents of veterans who die of natural causes after discharge from service.

An information and service center to assist all dependents of deceased servicemen is maintained in Washington, D. C., and in Chicago, Illinois. Requests for information or for assistance with claims may be made by writing to the National Service Officer, Gold Star Wives Service Foundation, 1906 K Street, N. W., Washington, D. C. Applications for direct aid should be addresed to the Welfare Officer, Gold Star Wives Service Foundation, 63 East Adams Street, Chicago 3, Illinois.

alarm system to warn us of an alert, Mr. Trumbull said that the warning of an alert would be broadcast on 640 and 1240 on your radio dial, as the commercial radio broadcasting stations would sign-off immediately. We hope to have an air-raid alert warning system located in the Lakeside area soon.

This is the first in a series of articles that will appear in the Lakeside Star to keep you posted on the progress of the Civilian Defense program in Lakeside. But we need many more truck drivers, bulldozer operators, typists, plumbers, nurses, cooks, file clerks, mechanics, electricians, welders, carpenters and things too numerous to mention here. Come tell us what you can do and let us put you to work.

Security Bank Has New Sign

FINE ASSEMBLY PROGRAMS

Lakeside certainly has had many excellent assembly programs this year. Last Friday another fine program was presented in the Lakeside auditorium.

Mrs. Nelson's Fourth Graders were very enthusiastic as they sang songs about Mexico and conscientiously followed their choral leader, Donna Kendall. The group also danced "La Raspa" and appeared to enjoy themselves as much as the audience.

Mrs. Helen Long deserves an Oscar for her Spanish narration of "The Three Bears" and the children were very good as they carried through the action explained in the narration. Against an extremely striking backdrop and set these children reenacted the perrenial childrn's favorite: Mama Bear, Carolyn Wright; Papa Bear, Larry Wyatt; Baby Bear, Jimmie Small; Goldilocks, Patsy Van Ness; Announcer, Roger Carlson.

"The House on the Hill" a program well calculated to keep you in suspense was presented by Mr. Heaton's Class. The program, which took us behind the scenes in a radio station, had everything from sound effects to a soap sponsor. The applause of the audience expressed enthusiastic appreciation for the play and the cast, Mary Brown, Beverly Saxton, Carlton Owens, Sue Downind, Dean Baxter, Gerrie Parkinson, Morgan Newman, Ross Coan, Willard Smith, Morris Williams, Sharon Bodfish, Carol Sturgeon, Barbara Lawson, Lee Fuller, Wesley Kouns and Ruth Thomas.

ABOUT THIS AND THAT

Mrs. Schensted's first graders have been happy to have their mothers visit their room. They have enjoyed showing their mothers the work they are doing.

Miss Erikssen's kindergarten children are culminating their circus unit. They have made clowns, ricus wagons, and paper animals. Next week they should have lots of fun making Easter decorations and pictures. Each child will, also, have an opportunity to dye eggs.

First time in Thirteen years. Children, teachers, in fact everyone, missed her. It was during lunch hour, last week, and the Lakeside Cafeteria just wasn't the same. Mrs. Davis had become ill and was among the absent. As a result of the illness Mrs. Davis missed half a day of work, which was the only time the lady has taken off from work in thirteen years!

Student Council Dance. The Student Council's "Rabbit Romp" their next dance, is planned for March 27th at 7:00 p. m. in the Lakeside Cafetorium.

Flu Marches On. The flu germ appears to have invaded the teaching staff for the second time this year. Among the missing in Lakeside last week were Mrs. Emling, Mrs. Hall and Mrs. Kroll.
